Virginia Police Find Most Of Stolen $160,000

Money Taken From U. S. Engraver Where It Had Been Printed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Virginia State Police today reported they have recovered "the bulk" of the $160,000 stolen from the government's Bureau of Engraving in Washington. They said it was located in a metal tool box on a farm near Centerville, Va.

State troopers there said they did not know exactly how much of the money was recovered or whether any arrests had been made. They said the Secret Service in Washington would report further developments.

Secret Service headquarters here declined for the moment to discuss the case. It was learned, however, several agents were in Centerville.

Treasury Employee Suspected

Virginia officers said a Treasury employee was suspected of the unprecedented theft from the tightly guarded engraving building.

They said this employee had spent several thousand dollars of the money.

The Bureau of Printing and Engraving comes under the jurisdiction of the Treasury Department.

Officers said an associate of the suspect, who knew of the theft, gave information to a State Police officer which led to recovery of most of the money.

The huge sum, in stacks of 20 dollar bills, was found on a farm in Loudon County and was whisked by Secret Service agents to Washington early today, they said.

Among other things, Virginia police reported, the suspects had bought a new Oldsmobile with the missing money.

May Get In Circulation

It's possible some of the missing money may seep into circulation. Here's how you can tell if one of the bills comes your way:

Each of them is a $20 Federal Reserve Bank of New York note. It bears a picture of Andrew Jackson. It belongs to the series 1950-A, and the serial number falls into one of these groups:

B90236001A to B90240000A, B9025001A to B90256000A.

Chief U. E. Baughman of the U. S. Secret Service made public those serial numbers last night even before his agents began questioning the engraving bureau employees who may have had access to the rooms where the money was packaged and—supposedly—started on its way to a huge burglar proof vault.

Yesterday morning when the plant reopened after the New Year's weekend two money packages in the vault turned out to be suspiciously light in weight.

Alarms sounded, and the paper-wrapped packages, sealed with official labels bearing the proper serial numbers, were found to contain nothing more than money-sized white paper.

Henry J. Holtzclaw, associated director of the bureau, said it certainly looked as if somebody—presumably an employee—had walked off with the $160,000, quite likely disguising it as a Christmas present.

Grand Jury Seated, 16 Cases To Be Studied

LISBON—Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp began to seat jurors this morning in Court Room No. 1 for the three-day January grand jury session.

The jury will consider 16 criminal cases ranging from first degree manslaughter and burglary to resisting an officer.

Assistant Prosecutor G. W. Brokaw said 36 witnesses have been summoned.

Senators Say Gouzenko Gave Names, Data On U. S. Spying

NEW YORK (AP)—Two senators said today Igor Gouzenko, who helped smash a Russian spy ring in Canada, had given them names and information usable for the internal security of the United States. Sens. William E. Jenner (R-Ind.) and Pat McCarran (D-Nev.) told newsmen on returning from a trip to Canada that they questioned Gouzenko for more than five hours yesterday.

Gouzenko formerly was a code clerk for the Russians in Canada. The senators declined to reveal where they had seen Gouzenko at what they described as a hearing. They said their mission "was accomplished and it was satisfactory."

Jenner and McCarran arrived at Pennsylvania Station here at 9:20 a. m. EST aboard the Washingtonian from Montreal.

KEEPING HARRY'S NOSE CLEAN, BIG JOB—This bust of former President Harry S. Truman got loving care as shown by this young lady when it was first installed just outside the Senate chamber in December, 1948. Over the years the bust has come in for some rough handling with Capitol visitors tweaking Truman's famous nose, keeping the cleanup men hopping to keep it respectable. The cleanup detail promises to have Harry's nose spotlessly clean for the opening of the new session of Congress.

Determined To Solve Farm Problem

President Pledges 'Constantly Increasing Prosperity For All'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Close associates say President Eisenhower is determined to solve the farm price problem as one of the first steps in carrying out his pledge of "constantly increasing prosperity for all."

In a radio-television report to the people last night, the President said his administration is using "every legitimate means available to the federal government" to maintain prosperity and will continue to do so as long as is necessary.

Asserting that his administration does not believe in a "boom-and-bust America" in which prosperity hinges on war or threats of war, he said the program he will lay before Congress in his State of the Union message Thursday will be keyed to federal help.

"It is a program that does not deal in pie-in-the-sky promises to all, nor bribes to a few, nor in threats to any," he declared. "It is a program inspired by zeal for the common good, dedicated to the welfare of every American family—whatever its means of livelihood may be or its social position or its ancestral strain or its religious affiliations."

In outlining the past year's accomplishments, he said ground-work has been laid to sustain basic prosperity "in the strong belief that the federal government should be prepared at all times—ready at a moment's notice—to use every proper means" toward that end.

He said a program of sound planning and aggressive enterprise must be accompanied by "a faith which cannot be shaken by self-appointed peddlers of gloom and doom" in America's growth and progress.

This was an obvious thrust at some Democrats, like Senators Douglas of Illinois and Kerr of Oklahoma, who have said the country already is in a recession and may be headed for a real depression.

Eisenhower claimed a halt in to-bogganing farm prices as one of the accomplishments of his administration in its first year. Presumably he referred to an Agriculture Department report last week which said that after months of decline, average farm prices were up slightly in mid-December.

Members of Congress said the President had stressed in conferences on his program the need for action on the farm front.

In this connection, it was reported that he will recommend in a special message on the subject next Monday action to clear away mounting crop surpluses as a pre-

New Brighton Youth Confesses Stabbing

LISBON — A 16-year-old New Brighton, Pa., youth confessed Monday to stabbing Robert Cutlip, 24, of Freedom, Pa. Sunday morning near Negley.

The juvenile was apprehended by police, together with two companions, also of New Brighton, when a melee arose after a hot race on Route 170.

Cutlip, who is reported in good condition at Rochester General Hospital, was slashed by the teenager in the abdomen, chest, wrist, and thigh with a five-inch switchblade knife.

Mervin Young, 23, and Robert Carlisle, 19, will receive a hearing today but the juvenile will not be released from the Beaver (Pa.) detention room until questioned by authorities concerning a probation matter.

Senator To Ask McCarthy Group Budget Be Cut

Ike Reported Urging McCarthy To Drop Red-Hunting Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said today he will appeal to the Senate to "cut down to size" the spending budget of Sen. McCarthy's permanent investigations subcommittee.

Simultaneously, four newspapers reported that the Eisenhower administration has been urging McCarthy (R-Wis.) to concentrate on investigating waste and corruption, leaving searches for subversives primarily to others, and that McCarthy is said to have agreed. Accounts to that effect were carried by the New York Times and Herald Tribune, the Washington Post and the Baltimore Sun.

The Post quoted administration leaders it did not name as saying McCarthy had been urged to give "greater attention to legislative needs, directing his investigations more at waste, inefficiency and corruption—and leaving most of the Red hunting to the group created to do that—the Senate Internal Security subcommittee."

The Post continued: "McCarthy reportedly has indicated he will follow this line, but how far he will follow it is unknown."

Curbs On Senator Failed "At the beginning of the last session of Congress, it should be recalled, there was also a series of moves aimed at curbing McCarthy's activities. None of them materialized."

McCarthy, out of the city, was not immediately available for comment. He said last week "digging out communism" was not the "primary purpose" of his subcommittee, and that it has been careful to check with the Senate internal security subcommittee to avoid duplication.

"If in our investigations we find subversive elements in government which would prevent the government from operating properly, and no other congressional group is investigating, then we go ahead," he said.

One Person Is Injured In Area Road Mishap

A 30-year-old New York City resident was treated at Salem City Hospital for shock and body bruises after a two-car collision on Route 62, a mile north of Salem, at 10 p. m. Monday.

State patrolmen said the New Yorker, Frances Reed, was a passenger in a car driven by Paul Caldwell, 64, of New York City that was struck in the rear by an auto operated by Robert Neal, 18, of Shelby, O.

Both autos were southbound on the highway at the time of the mishap. Patrolmen cited Neal for reckless driving.

School Board Picks Fitch, Sets Budget

A record temporary three-month appropriation of $321,725 was approved and Attorney Alfred L. Fitch and John C. Litty were elected president and vice president, respectively, as the Salem Board of Education held its first meeting of 1954 last night in the high school.

George F. Koontz, board clerk-treasurer for 20 years, was re-elected to another two-year term by a split vote.

The budget is a $50,000 increase over those of 1952 and 1951 which were $271,725.

Passage by Salem voters of a 2.4 mill levy in the November election for increases in teachers' salaries is reflected in the increased budget.

Estimated for teachers' salaries for the three months is an expenditure of $250,000, a $50,000 increase over last year's figure.

The teachers' salaries is the largest single item in the budget. Other estimates include:

Administration—$8,300

Principals' Salaries—$3,500

Janitors—$20,000

Supplies—$10,600

Maintenance—$750

Insurance—$2,000

Of the 1954 total, $306,725 was estimated for the general fund and $15,000 for retirement of bonds and interest on bonds.

New Members Inducted

New board members Robert H. Heddeston and Dr. Donald E. Lease were sworn in by Fitch to open the meeting.

John Litty nominated Fitch for president and Orein Narragon seconded. No other nominations were made, and Fitch was elected to succeed E. S. Dawson. Dawson assumed the presidency in 1951, but was defeated for re-election to the board in the November election.

On the election of a clerk, Heddeston moved that Koontz, who has been serving the board since 1933, be re-elected.

Fitch urged that the election be for a one-year term instead of two. Koontz asked Fitch his reason for seeking the change, pointing out that election had always been for two-year terms and that he was bonded for two years.

Fitch praised Koontz' work in the past but said board members Turn To SCHOOL BOARD, Page 12

2 Ohio Children Die When Home Burns

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—Two young children burned to death today when a fire destroyed their home in nearby Thornport. Their father tried desperately to reach them in their second-floor room but failed.

The victims were Susan Jo Simmers, 4, and her 2-year-old brother Harold, children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Simmers.

The fire of undetermined origin apparently started in the kitchen of the six-room frame house. The father, 24, had returned home from work at the Timken Roller Bearing Co. at Newark about three hours before the fire broke out.

His wife, Norma, 26, told newsmen her husband turned on their television set while she and a third child, Eugene, 6, went to sleep on a first-floor couch. She said the fire's heat awakened her about 3 a. m.

Mrs. Simmers awoke her husband. He tried to make his way up the stairway, but ran into a mass of flame. He ran outside, climbed a porch post to the roof, but found the whole second floor in flames. Friends of the young family said a neighbor also tried to reach the trapped children, but failed.

Parking Meter Receipts Rise

$18,497 Total For Last Year Sets Mark

Revenue from city parking meters, after showing a drop in 1951 and 1952, took a rebound during 1953 and surpassed the previous high of 1950, Mrs. Helen Coyne, city auditor, reported today.

Receipts from the meters last year totaled $18,497.62. Previous years' totals were 1952—$14,302.61, 1951—$14,972.60, and 1950—$16,193.42.

Some of the increase may be attributed to the addition of the municipal parking lot on the site of the old City Hall. The lot was opened for public parking June 16.

The 28 meters installed in the lot bring in an average revenue of approximately $80 per month, according to Safety-Service Director J. Arch Harwood.

Highly irregular in monthly receipts, the parking lot during one month of the year brought in $113 while at other times the revenue has been down as low as $65, Harwood explained.

The three high months in 1953 for parking meter receipts were April, July and September, according to the auditor's records, with $2,601.16, $2,454.57 and $2,271.43 collected, respectively.

Steel Firm To Call Back 100 Workers

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Republic Steel Corp. said today it was re-lighting a 112-ton open hearth furnace here and a 110-ton open hearth at its Massillon plant and calling back more than 100 of the 3,300 employees laid off in this area since mid 1953.

About 45 men will be recalled at the Canton works where 4 of 6 furnaces are operating. Relighting the Massillon furnace will mean recall of about 55 workers, and another 25 are being added in the stainless steel division there. Four of Republic's nine Massillon furnaces are operating.

Republic officials said an upturn in demand for high grade steel brought about the first lay-off terminations in about six months. There still will be about 2,000 Republic workers idle here and around 1,200 in Massillon.

Construction Worker Choice Of New Mayor

Cranmer Appointee Has Been Foreman; Safety Job Studied

James Feiler, 36, of Martins Drive, a construction superintendent, is Mayor Dean B. Cranmer's choice for service director, the mayor disclosed today.

In announcing the appointment of Mr. Feiler as service director, Mayor Cranmer emphasized again that he would ask City Council to pass an ordinance to create separate positions of safety and service directors.

After this is done he will pick his safety director, the mayor said. Safety-Service Director J. Arch Harwood's tenure in office does not expire until Jan. 15. His pay has been $2,604 annually.

Mr. Feiler, a native of Salem, has worked for construction firms in Youngstown and Cleveland and also in California. He is a bricklayer by trade although he has supervised over all construction work, including steel erection, plumbing, wiring and carpentry.

He was a foreman for the Willard Keir Company of Youngstown which recently completed the remodeling of the First National Bank here.

He also helped to build the new addition to the Ellsworth School. As a foreman for the John Murman Co. of Cleveland, he helped to build a new water reservoir for the village of Salineville and when working in California two years ago he was superintendent of construction for the Downing Company at San Juan.

He was graduated from Salem High School in 1935 and served one year in the navy aboard a troopship during World War II.

He is married to the former Jean Polen of Salineville and the couple has one son, James Feiler, Jr., aged 11.

U. N. Ready For Disturbances As POWs Are Freed

ROKs May Attack If Release Doesn't Come On Schedule

SEOUL (AP)—The 8th Army is getting set for "any eventuality" at midnight Jan. 22 when more than 20,000 anti-Communist prisoners are scheduled to be freed from neutral custody, it was learned tonight.

These eventualities reportedly include even an attack by South Korean army forces if anti-Red Chinese and North Korean prisoners are not freed according to the Korean armistice timetable.

Even as the 8th Army prepared for the prisoner release, South Korea and the Communists—bitter foes—joined in bitter criticism of a head count of anti-Communist war prisoners by Indian troops. The U.N. Command has warmly endorsed the count.

American troops waiting south of the demilitarized zone were reported ready to handle a disorganized rush southward of thousands of prisoners if they should break out or become unruly after being released from the 55 compounds in which they are held.

It also was learned that present plans call for the anti-Red prisoners to start moving southward out of the neutral zone just after midnight Jan. 22. The POWs will not be asked to wait until dawn.

Measures are being taken for special isolation of pro-Communist prisoners or agents moving southward with the prisoners. Loudspeakers along the roadways leading southward will tell them to "weed out the hostile among you."

North Koreans will be held temporarily in compounds north of Munsan, it was learned, while Chinese will be moved to Inchon to board ships for Formosa.

ROK Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai and North Korean Lt. Gen. Lee Sang Cho used almost the same language in condemning the head count.

But as Pyun told a news conference today, his motives and those of the Communists "are as far apart as two stars."

The Indian command made what it called a routine head count of 4,384 Chinese prisoners Thursday. While the count was under way, 135 asked to be returned to Communist China.

The Communists promptly branded the head count illegal—a word used today by Pyun.

"It is illegal and arbitrary—it is a criminal action," he said.

"Our government has come to the stage where we cannot be quiet," he called the Indian guards "armed Communist explainers" who are forcing the prisoners to return to the Communists.

He said "it is outside my province" when asked what action South Korea might take if the head count were continued.

One high South Korean official said earlier the government was prepared to use force if necessary to halt a further count. However, most U. N. officials called the threat merely another move in South Korea's war of nerves against the Indian command.

The Indians said the head count was made to check its prisoner rosters. And the U. N. Command gave the count its full blessing, saying it is entirely in accordance with the U. N. principle of free choice for prisoners if any of them ask repatriation as a byproduct.

Observers here said the Reds appear to feel that any de facto screening, even though some prisoners ask to return, undercuts their contention that POW interviews which ended Dec. 23 should be extended. The Reds also contend that all prisoners should be kept in neutral custody until a peace conference decides their fate.

There was no official reaction from the Indian command to Pyun's statement but some officers said privately, "It is just talk. And I suppose Pyun is looking for a sensational headline."

Rhodes Seen GOP Choice For Governor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Republican leaders weren't saying for sure, but it appeared today State Auditor James A. Rhodes would be their choice to run for governor against Democratic incumbent Frank J. Lausche.

State Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss of Akron and five top office holders, including Rhodes, huddled for two hours last night and had what Bliss called "a general discussion about the governor's race."

When it was all over Rhodes said, "I will have a statement within the week."

Bliss, however, said there was "no final decision" on a candidate for governor.

Rhodes, who says he has been endorsed by party leaders in "about 60 counties," has been mentioned often as the probable Republican choice to stop Lausche in his bid for a fifth term.

The 44-year-old three-time mayor of Columbus now in his first term as auditor has expressed willingness to run unopposed for the Republican nomination in the May 4 primary.

Lt. Gov. John W. Brown, one of the Republicans present at last night's meeting, said he, too, would make a statement this week. He and House Speaker William Saxbe of Mechanicsburg have declared their intentions to run for governor if Rhodes doesn't seek the nomination.

Cpl. Batchelor Says Reds Ordered Americans Not To Appear For Prisoner Interviews

TOKYO (AP)—An American soldier who returned to his countrymen after once rejecting them for communism said today the Red high command ordered him and 21 other Americans to break up Allied efforts to win them back.

Cpl. Claude J. Batchelor of Kermit, Tex., said the Reds slipped instructions through a Communist-staffed hospital near the neutral zone camp where the 22 pro-Red American POWs were held. He said the Reds ordered the Americans not to come out for Allied explanations. The Americans never did show for the interviews.

Batchelor spoke at a crowded news conference in Tokyo Army Hospital.

The 22-year-old corporal, who left the North Camp early New Year's Day, said "I made a mistake" in once believing America was the aggressor in Korea.

However, he denied he had ever been an informer on fellow prisoners. He said he hoped he had not influenced anyone and said that if he had, "I am very sorry for it."

"To prove myself," he said, "I'd like to get some of the other prisoners back." He said that several weeks before he left "I wanted to try to get some other men out" but would not say why he failed.

He said he had been a progressive before the truce was signed. He said he had begun to believe the United States was the aggressor after reading Red propaganda.

Meanwhile, his Japanese wife Kyoko worked on letters to three Americans still in the stockade near Panmunjom.

"Claude says my letters decided him to come back," Kyoko said, "and maybe would help him to get his friends to come back too."

Batchelor asked her not to reveal the names.

The Army said Batchelor probably would remain at the hospital as a patient about 15 days, but would be allowed to leave on pass. He and Kyoko are planning a second honeymoon.

While in Camp 5 at Pyoktong, Batchelor said, he was vice president of a "daily life club set up to better our life there." He said not all of the men in the club were progressives and that he got "no special privileges."

"I had no power. I didn't exercise any leadership," he said.

Batchelor said the pro-Red Americans elected him as their leader and, until the day he left, "I still held the job as chief representative."

It was when he reached the neutral zone stockade, he said, that he began to realize his mistake—he got more mail than he had ever received at any time in captivity. He saw the newspaper put out by the neutral custodians and noticed "worsening conditions in the camp" but declined to give details.

Asked if he felt he had embarrassed the American people, he replied: "Now I do."

Drunk Child Admits Stealing Whisky

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—He was tipsy and he was supported on either side by two friends.

The lady of the house called the police.

They confirmed her suspicions: he'd been drinking—and he was 9 years old.

The boy and his companions admitted they had taken two pint bottles of whisky from a drug store. Questioning disclosed four watches had been stolen from another store. Police gave the boys a stiff lecture and released them to their parents.

Father, Sons Hold Political Offices

EAST PALESTINE — When Kenneth Hunston was sworn in last night as a member of village council, he became the third member of his family to hold a political office.

Kenneth's brother, Walter Jay Hunston, is solicitor for the city of Salem and both are the sons of Walter A. Hunston, East Palestine mayor for 12 years and now a Columbiana County commissioner.

The Hunston family has been lifetime East Palestine residents. Father and sons are Republicans.

Walter had three sons who all served with the armed services during World War II, Jay as a radar officer aboard a destroyer with the Navy, Kenneth with the Marine Corps and a third son, Burris was killed in Europe while in the Army.

Jay sums up the family's position with these words: "Our family has always had a firm belief in the democratic form of government and we have always been taught that each has a responsibility to serve our country whether it be in war or peace. Our father has been a living example for us to follow, since as long as I can remember, community problems have been his problems. Mother always saw to it that our religious education was such that Christian principles became an integral part of our lives, and as long as we have our father's devotion to service and the religious background which our mother provided we feel we can render a worthwhile service to our respective communities."

The elder Hunston was in the trucking business in East Palestine during the years while he was raising and educating his five children. He retired from the trucking business when he became county commissioner.

Besides his two sons, he has two daughters, Mrs. J. D. Ashbridge of East Palestine and Mrs. Willis Gentile of Salisbury, Md.

Mrs. Ashbridge also is in public service, as a nurse for the city board of health.

Judge Taft Files For Re-Election To Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Judge Kinsley A. Taft of the Ohio Supreme Court today filed his declaration of candidacy for reelection with the secretary of state. He seeks the Republican nomination for the Jan. 2 term of six years. Judge Taft reported the filing in a prepared statement that noted he was the first to submit petitions for a state office. The petitions contained more than 3,400 signatures from all of Ohio's 88 counties.

Before election to the Supreme Court in 1948, Judge Taft, now 50, practiced law for 20 years in his native Cleveland. He was a state representative in 1933-34 and was elected to a short term as U.S. senator in 1946.

Judge and Mrs. Taft now live in suburban Bexley with two of their four sons. One son is an engineer with a Cleveland firm and another is in the Army.

RAILROAD AGENT DIES

Smoking Crackpots

By LAURA HOBSON

On a ranch near Fort Worth, Texas, a man named Luther L. Lindsay fired a bullet through his brain because his wife smokes.

Laura Hobson

my daughter (four years old) smoking like her mother.

The note was signed "Pop," and bore a P.S. "Damn women that smoke."

This extraordinary story made me sad for the unknown Lulu Mae and her family, but it also sent me straight to my folder of mail from newspaper readers, to get out a couple of letters about a recent column on "no smoking" signs in public places.

Paying its respects to the rights of people opposed to smoking on moral and medical grounds, or just out of preferences in air, the piece made no secret of the fact that I myself smoke.

ITS MAIN POINT was a plea for more consistency in the no-smoking rules of our 48 states, and asked why smoking was allowed in night clubs everywhere, but frequently forbidden in concrete and steel buildings where nothing less than an acetylene torch could ignite anything.

In due course, letters arrived which agreed, others which disagreed. They were letters in good taste and bore the names and addresses of the senders.

Two other letters also came. These went not in my regular folders for reader mail, but into a special one I keep, set apart by a short snappy label.

ONE HAD a Missouri postmark but no address, and was signed Sara Todd. If this space were longer, I wouldn't deprive you of a syllable of it, but here are some sample phrases:

"To think of a woman," it said, "a mother, supposedly intelligent, who has allowed herself to become a slave to such a disgusting habit... What can you expect of your children? We have women here in our town in the same filthy clutch."

Aren't you the faintest bit ashamed of the picture you gave of yourself? I am, for one."

It's a free country and a free press and anybody can write letters to any author alive, but if Missouri has any statutes prohibiting ordinary good manners, I've never heard tell of them.

And good manners, I've always thought, excludes name-calling, forbids dragging people's children into any attack on a parent, and reserves holier-than-thou phrases like "ashamed for you" for use in comic strips and soap opera.

THE SECOND letter was signed "A true blue American," and thus announced a hit-and-run correspondent. "So you object to no smoking signs?" this one began. "Maybe you'd rather be ruled by Reds and Commies? Depraved people that smoke should be jailed in prisons, where they could sniff up dope till they rot."

Letters like these prove that some people chew themselves into ulcers over matters that are strictly none of their business. Their writers must assume that countless millions of American, English, French, Swedish, Turkish, Danish or Hindustani smokers are sickening or subversive, decadent or depraved. Aren't their cigarettes legal evidence?

Though most letter-writers who breath out fire and smoke, don't so as far as putting bullets through their brains, their pen and pencil performances always amuse and often fascinate me.

My special folder for them is still skinny, but the short snappy label on it says, "Crackpot."

WARREN COMPOSER DIES

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Funeral services will be held here Friday for Fred G. Henry, 67, a composer who claimed to have written the music for "I See You in My Dreams." Henry who died in a hospital Sunday, said he sold the music for the piece and never received credit for it. He had written a number of songs and was a prominent local musician and music teacher.

Employees, Firms Paying More Into Social Security Fund

NEW YORK (AP)—Your paycheck this week will be trimmed a little more to take care of your old age. And your boss will have to pay Uncle Sam a little more, too, to that same end. If he has a big payroll, it will be quite a bite.

These two facts—that individual paychecks are being cut and that businesses are being taxed more for the social security program—are back of a battle shaping up in Congress.

The issues: Should the social security program continue to be run, as a good insurance company is, by building up reserves for future payments, or should it become a pay-as-you-go-plan with the tax

Civic Benefit Group Plans Jan. 14 Meeting

HANOVERTON — Members of the Civic Benefit Fund Association are reminded of a change in date for the next meeting. Instead of Jan. 7, the meeting is scheduled to be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 14 in the Hanoverton Presbyterian Church.

At this meeting the newly-elected officers and members of the board of directors will take office. The revised by-laws will be presented to the Association for final approval and matters concerning the use to which Association funds should be put will be discussed.

The young people of the communities which the Association serves are especially invited to attend, and it is hoped that there will be a good representation of the recently organized teen-age group from Hanoverton and the surrounding areas.

Legislator Seeks Hike In Hard Wheat Acreage

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. D'Ewart (R-Mont) said today he has prepared a bill to permit farmers to plant more durum, high protein spring and hard winter wheats.

On the first day of the new session of Congress, Wednesday, he said, he will introduce the bill which would give the secretary of agriculture authority to regulate acreage allotments for all types and grades of wheat.

D'Ewart said present laws give the secretary no discretion in the application of acreage allotments. There is great demand for durum, high protein spring and hard winter wheats, he added, although there is an over-supply of soft wheats.

D'Ewart said his bill would not affect price support operations but would "assure American consumers of a continued adequate supply of the high protein wheats while at the same time protecting the economy against an oversupply of other grades."

Raise In Pay For Congress

The long-pending move to bring the pay of congressmen up to a level in keeping with the original intent of a high congressional pay scale is scheduled to reach a congressional vote early next spring.

This will carry out the original aim of giving representatives and senators enough salary to attract citizens of high caliber.

It will have been seven years next March since the last adjustment in congressional pay—seven years during which millions of the constituents of congressmen have had several pay adjustments.

But the strongest argument for an adjustment upward from the existing level of $15,000 is not based on comparison with pay levels for other Americans. It is based, rather, on the fact, standing alone, that members of Congress are not making out successfully on $15,000.

Everything about their cost of living is influenced by the fact they are members of Congress. They must maintain two homes and two offices. They must pay unusual expenses for travel. They must carry all the unusual obligations that go with membership in the legislature of a great country.

When their obligations begin to exceed their means, making it impossible for citizens of ordinary means to serve in Congress, the United States is in danger of paying a dear price for low congressional salaries.

It could pay congressmen enough to give them adequate financial leeway—say $25,000 a year—for less cost per capita per year than the price of a package of chewing gum.

Pistol Politics

Since a traitor in politics is someone who offends the politicians in power, it is evident that the Russians who have executed Lavrenty Beria and a half a dozen others as traitors do not care for the Beria type.

They favor the military type.

Beria's clique was civilian. It included Stalin, who may have been destroyed by the same people who now have destroyed Beria. It also included Malenkov, who may be ticketed for the next charge of treason.

This is pistol politics at its worst. The struggle for political power inside the Soviet Union is not essentially different from the struggle in other lands, except for one thing:

The political elements of the Soviet Union are capable of ruthlessness not dreamed of in other lands. The entire Soviet despotism is based on the principle that the end always justifies the means in public affairs—any means.

They may be the murder of individuals or the murder of whole minorities. They may be the mouthings of Marx, the mouthings of Lenin, or the mouthings of Stalin. For a limited time, they apparently include the mouthings of Malenkov, who eventually will be murdered by the militarists or will have to murder them.

Stalin stayed in power by murdering the militarists. Whether they finally killed him or merely took advantage of his death is indeterminate, but they now are in the saddle.

Beria and Malenkov belonged to the same faction — the civilian faction which lorded it over the soldiers. But the soldiers now are doing the lording. Beria is gone, with six to keep him company in whatever corner of hell has been chained off for modern despots. They should save standing room for Malenkov.

Wonderment Among The Ruins

Eventually, the dirt and grime which settle down over our cities day in and day out will get ahead of the white wigs and housekeepers.

From then on, the city's fate will be in the hands of archeologists. These excavators sometime may perform as scientific projects what the sanitation department was unable to perform as a housekeeping chore.

One of their important excavations in 1953 uncovered the floor of the room in which Socrates stood during his trial in Athens nearly 2,500 years ago. By 4000 A.D. or thereabouts, archeologists may be uncovering the rostrum of the United Nations Assembly hall in a place variously known as New York City and New Amsterdam and wondering what went on there.

What will they make of it? What will they make of Yankee Stadium, Soldiers Field in Chicago, the Los Angeles Coliseum?

What will they think of those statues in the Capitol in Washington, the strange substances which presumably are going to be preserved forever in home freezers, the Christmas presentation bottles in which strong liquor was passed from hand to hand in 1953, the lighters which still won't work as well as matches, the stainless steel decor of filling stations?

In the interest of minimizing confusion maybe we'd better get rid of all this stuff before it gets covered up.

Frankly we don't believe the archeologists of the future will be able to figure it out. They'll be jumping to the conclusion that we must have been as wacky as we actually are.

Sane Economic Formula

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Ike Wrings Waste From Employment Program

More important than the broad outlines of policy which President Eisenhower will be proclaiming in his various messages this month are certain concrete programs already in operation which indicate the administration's fundamental attitude of mind toward the continued maintenance of an economic equilibrium in America.

The use of governmental power and funds to furnish full employment to the American people is now an established principle of social welfare.

It can be wrongly applied, as it was under the Roosevelt-Truman administrations, for political purposes and on a discriminatory basis — or it can be rightly applied, as is being done by the Eisenhower administration, to meet conditions arising in all sections regardless of political factors and without subsidy.

BECAUSE the Eisenhower administration's plan to funnel defense contracts to some communities where there is unemployment was not sufficiently explained in various press dispatches when it was announced on November 4, the full significance of the new set-up is to a large extent still unknown and, indeed, has since brought criticisms based largely on an unfamiliarity with the facts.

Basically, the unemployment problem at present is a spotty affair. It has arisen in particular localities where layoffs have occurred rather than in whole regions.

Under the Truman regime, the custom was to call for bids in these surplus labor communities and endeavor to get a manufacturer there to match a low bid and, if he

This cost the taxpayers more money and constituted a subsidy, couldn't, the government would pay a price differential to him.

Under the Eisenhower formula, however, there is no loss to the taxpayers because no differential in price is paid to anybody. A business man who goes after certain types of contracts gets the order if he comes up with the lowest price, and he gets the business irrespective of whether or not he is in a surplus labor area. He established the low bid for certain articles. Eighty per cent of the total contracts are allocated in that way, and no change in method for this portion of the defense program is contemplated.

THE REMAINING 20 per cent of the government's procurement needs, however, is set aside for not he is in a surplus labor area, only, but they must meet the lowest bid price for the same article as established in the non-surplus labor area. The government does not, therefore, pay any price differential. It merely favors the contractor in the surplus labor area on a certain amount of production if he matches the low bid obtained elsewhere, or if he is tied with the lowest bidder in the first instance.

There are at present eight major areas with labor surpluses—three in New England and five in the South. There are 22 smaller labor surplus areas — none in New England but a large proportion in Alabama, Kentucky, West Virginia, North Carolina.

The criticism that has come from the South is evidently based on an unfounded fear that the textile industries of New England which have been migrating southward now will be subsidized to stay north. This is not envisaged at all. Actually the New England members of Congress of both parties who are supporting the plan are far more interested in the tax amortization feature of the whole formula as it affects new industries, than in getting contracts for textile mills.

UNDER EXISTING law the Defense Department can certify a tax amortization plan of five years for a defense plant that might not have much value to anybody once the article is manufactured in ample quantity for military purposes.

Hitherto the tax depreciation allowance has been figured on the basis of 60 per cent of the investment. Now, however, the Eisenhower administration will promise that an additional 15 or even 20 per cent of value may be used as a base for computing the depreciation if new defense plants are erected in surplus labor areas.

It is a method of inducing the prospective defense manufacturer to locate his new plants where there is surplus labor.

The thinking behind this is that when unemployment comes it is better to keep the workers employed where they have homes than to cause a general migration from a surplus labor area to a non-surplus area. It also reduces the unemployment insurance drain on the government.

The whole approach is one that takes into account the principle of governmental intervention where unemployment occurs.

CERTAINLY it makes just as much sense to use government funds to get work done in communities of the United States that have people idle, as it does to spend billions to get American defense work done in Britain, France, Italy and other countries where economic distress since the close of World War II has been recognized as an emergency requiring appropriations by our Congress.

The philosophy of the Eisenhower formula as applied to the problems in this country recognizes the responsibility of the federal government to co-ordinate its huge program of procurement with actual economic conditions, but without using it as a form of political pap or as a means of extravagant spending.

It shows the Eisenhower administration certainly is just as much concerned with human problems as were its predecessors, but doesn't apply the principle on a favoritism basis with political considerations and extra spending as a governing rule.

Don't Call A Doctor

By TRUMAN TWILL

When the lady of the house snaps and snarls at her loved ones, sets the table for more consumers than her brood contains and throws the leftovers into the garbage pail while putting the garbage into the refrigerator, do not call a doctor.

If it's the first two weeks in January, the old girl has an acute attack of holiday hangover.

All she needs is a dark, quiet corner until she clears her addled head.

All recollections of pine-tree needles on the carpet, jolly old elves with little round bellies, the patter of little hooves on the rooftop and little feet on the stairs;

Christmas cookies sprinkled with red and green sand or something equally indigestible, whether or not somebody's Cousin Louise wears a size 44 in slippers, how to wrap up an umbrella so it won't look like an umbrella;

Fat bows of red ribbon, holly wreaths, sticky finger prints left by grubby hands impregnated with goop from candy canes, lists of addresses for greeting cards;

Red candles, garlands of pine boughs, the crunch of Christmas ornaments being ground into oblivion by heavy-footed celebrants, fruit cake, turkey stuffing, tying bow ties for ham-handled males who must be trussed up in dinner jackets;

Squabbles arising over equitable divisions of loot, burned-out fuses, displaced furniture being kicked around until it is time to take down The Tree;

Loss of sleep, dishwasher hands, party dresses which could not be zipped up without such a struggle this time there never can be another time, offspring home from school and staying up most all night so they can sleep all day;

A sense of impending financial disaster in the household budget, misplaced articles which never will be found until the Christmas clutter has been disposed of;

A month's worth of postponed tasks, including mending, cleaning, ironing, cleaning dust out of corners and digging popcorn out of the crevices of overstuffed furniture;

Pets spoiled by too much indulgence, a general deterioration of household discipline for the same reason, loss of sleep, neglect of current magazines, cartoons in corners waiting for strings of Christmas tree lights and the other gingerbreaderie of Merry Christmas which must be stored away until next Christmas.

The burden of this gala occasion is picked up cheerfully by the lady of the house each December but by January it has her swaying on her flattened-out feet.

They hurt. Her head hurts. Her back hurts. She hurts all over. She has had it. All she wants now is to be let alone until Groundhog Day, at which time she will come out of her burrow and look around. If she doesn't see any Christmas trees or jolly old elves with little round bellies she will rejoice human society.

One Guess

Taxes In 1954

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

The cost of government to each individual, as represented by taxes, can be the determinant factor in the standard of living, the opportunity to improve the social and economic position of the family, and the nature of the society in which we live.

Taxes may be used by the state for a redistribution of wealth, for limiting incomes, for shifting the centers of political power from one group to another. Taxes, then, are not only devised to provide a government with revenue to alter the nature of the society. Taxes can become a weapon of revolution.

The most brutal tax ever devised by government is the income tax, because it gives the taxpayer no option. It imprisons him in the power of government. If an excise is put on mink coats, we can do without mink coats, but there is no way to employ an option, to make a choice with regard to the income tax, except to cheat, to swindle, to falsify statements, to commit perjury. It is, in effect, a police tax.

Thus the racketeer, the thief and the bribe-taker have an advantage over the honest citizen. OCCASIONALLY, an investigation or an accident will provide data on cheating, but those who are paid only by check, which is always reportable, are always at a disadvantage.

When the cheat discovers a method of converting "hot money" into honest money, he is able to use untaxed income for legitimate purposes. He thus is placed in a superior competitive position with honest citizens.

No great mind has discovered how to prevent this process from succeeding. Even when racketeers serve some time in jail, their hidden assets are generally untouched because when they come out of prison, it is evident that they are still in clover.

By Galbraith

The method of checking income tax payments is unfair. The field investigators are not to be blamed as they are usually honest men who work at small salaries and who can only defend their integrity by bringing in their quota of delinquents.

This quota system, often employed by police forces in traffic misdemeanors, is a dishonest system because it binds the field investigator to a dishonest decision. He places his own position in peril should he fail to bring in his quota each day.

HE IS FORCED to support his side in a difference of judgment as to deductions in order to make up his quota.

The cost of defending the taxpayer's judgment if frightfully expensive, involving not only time but money. The taxpayer therefore accepts a compromise as the more. Were this all that such an activity involves, it would be bad enough because no one should be asked to pay more than the law requires. But the morals of a nation have been debased by the tendency of our people to devote themselves to deductions, hoping that they will not be caught or, if caught, that they can compromise the difference of opinion. It is a very ugly business.

The withholding tax, from this standpoint, has been an instrument of evil because it is a device to make some taxpayers less conscious of the cost of taxes to them. It encourages strikes because the take-home pay is less than the anticipated amount and therefore disappointing. Such taxpayers, instead of blaming the politicians for depriving them of a large part of their incomes, blame the employers and demand more.

THE EMPLOYERS pay more, the prices of commodities go upward and the value of the dollar diminishes. As the value of the dollar diminishes, the economy goes out of kilter, controls have to be established, increasing numbers of bureaucrats have to be hired, and taxes go upward.

This vicious circle is what is gradually bringing upon us an economic recession which could move into a deep depression in a period of inflation.

Thus far, the Eisenhower administration has by no means met the challenge of this problem, although we are assured that the forthcoming messages of the President to Congress will propose some cures. It will be interesting to note, when the time comes, whether the reforms will be a drastic approach to a basic problem or a palliative in an election year.

If the former, it could save our economy; if the latter, it will prolong an unfortunate process.

Most Effective Ammunition

By RAYMOND MOLEY

There is something refreshingly new in the approach of President Eisenhower to tough political problems. The most recent example of that is the program of generalities that came out after the recent White House conference of Republican leaders.

It is clear that the President and his immediate official White House family feel that it will be very effective to have a nice list of laws passed by the forthcoming session of Congress and to go forth next autumn and tell the people all about them.

This is a fine thought to have around this holiday season, but, like some Christmas neckties, these hopes will be limp and faded by Easter. And then, come Labor Day, it will be the fierce attacks of the opposition that will make the issues.

THE BEST thing that seemed to come from the White House parleys was the manifest good will in which the conferences were held.

In that the President is a master, however much he may have to learn about the hard ways of politics.

He will need all of that fund of good will as things unfold in the months to come. For on questions like the amendment of the Taft-Hartley Act, farm supports, tariff reductions, and foreign aid, the differences between the President's advisers and the preponderant Republican group in Congress are wide and deep.

There is still a resentment that approaches bitterness about the utter failure of the administration to make any considerable progress in ridding itself of personnel in the departments who find it easy and convenient to frustrate efforts to carry out campaign promises.

THIS RESENTMENT is not entirely because so few jobs have been provided for Republicans, but it is also because the administration, except for a few top people, is much the same as it was when Candidate Eisenhower in 1952 promised to clean it out.

The attacks of senators like Morse, Kefauver, and Humphrey will grow in intensity, and we can have a fairly good idea now of what they will be.

The old spectre of "big business" will be prominent.

IN MANY STATES New Dealers will be campaigning vigorously on the issue of electric power. They will say that the administration has "sold out" to the "interests."

Morse will be even more the incorrigible nuisance than he was in the last session. He claims that he has traveled more and made more speeches than any other senator in the recess.

Those speeches were made to local audiences and fortunately have not encumbered the Congressional Record—as yet. He says that he intends to oppose practically everything, particularly any effort to remove people not under civil service.

THE THEME of his story will be that the country is unhappy over Republican rule and is waiting for the first chance to change it all.

Kefauver is running not only for re-election to the Senate, but undoubtedly for the Presidency in 1956.

His attacks upon Republican policies will, except in the South, be much more vigorous than the mild banter of Stevenson.

Faced by such opposition, Republican candidates will build their own arguments.

They are not going to campaign as the White House dictates. They will fire with whatever ammunition they find to be most effective.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Faults of the head are punished in this world, those of the heart in another; but as most of our vices are compound, so also is their punishment. — Colton.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Trotting, Dragnet Style

Harness racing, spreading rapidly all over the country, is watching New York where former Police Commissioner George Monaghan has just taken over as czar of the trotting tracks. Mr. Monaghan stepped abruptly from a squad car to a trotting sulky, as it were, New Year's Day. His appointment was somewhat sudden and we like to imagine the story as he might relate it, using the "Dragnet" routine:

The phone rang. I answered. The voice said, "This is Dewey." I said, "What Dewey?" The voice answered, "It ain't the hero of Manila Bay." I put two and two together. Left out Manila. I knew at once it was the Governor.

"Are you busy, George?"

"I could use a rest. Been working like a horse."

"That's what I wanted to talk to you about . . . HORSES!"

"I'm Monaghan the policeman; you must want Monaghan the veterinarian."

Then I got the facts. Horse trouble. Trotters. I trotted over to see him. Told him I'd work for him but wasn't out of harness yet. He said, "Keep the harness on. It establishes the mood." Then I got the details:

"There are hoodlums in trotting track operations."

"Yeah. So I heard. It's getting so the only way to train a horse is to send him to the crime movies."

"I want the horses to go straight."

"The only place that's possible is on the straightaway at Belmont."

"Horses don't trot at Belmont."

"The ones I bet on do."

"We've got to keep out the crooks at trotting tracks. Things have reached a point where a horse doesn't know which way to turn."

"That's bad on the curves, gunner."

Next day I contacted a top mobster. He wouldn't talk. Offered to buy a drink. I took a coke. He had a horse's neck. Or maybe it was a goiter. I let him have it on the chin:

"What's your interest in trotting tracks?"

"I'm a frustrated horse linctament salesman."

"Don't rub it in. What got you into trotting?"

"Longfellow. I'm a sucker for his Village Blacksmith."

"Smart guy, eh? I hear you have two hundred thousand dollars worth of stock in trotting tracks."

"That ain't hay!"

"You're telling me! Lock him up!"

Then I realized there was nobody present to lock him up. All my assistants were out getting the morning line at the flat tracks. I got sulky. The mobster got sulky, too. That gave us two sulks. All we needed now was two trotters. All the trotters were in reform school. We had to settle for pacers.

Nothing seems quite as unwanted today as a paper hat, a tin horn or a bag of confetti . . . Frank W. Abrams has retired as chairman of Standard of New Jersey where he began as an $18-a-week draftsman and wound up as a $100,000-a-year top executive . . . Made most of the trip on regular gasoline, too . . . This is the week when the entire staff wonders just what it did at the office parties and whether it will ever be regarded as excusable . . . Wonder if anybody thought to send Santa Claus a New Year's card?

The earth is at least 3,500,000,000 years old. That is how long it has been since this planet was formed either from fiery gases torn from the sun or by accumulation of numberless particles of space dust drawn together by gravitational force.

Remnants of billion-year-old buried mountains are being found under the great pre-Cambrian shield which covers a great deal of northern Canada and extends in places into the United States.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

By a strange twist, investigators of two lesser known congressional committees may have terrific impact on the voters when they go to the polls next November to decide whether or not to take Congress away from President Eisenhower.

These problems, now scouring at least 10 states and the highest federal bureaus for subversives and racketeers, have been poured into the field by subcommittees of the Senate and House Government Operations Committees.

The Senate sub-committee is controlled by Sen. Joseph McCarthy. The House sub-committee will be run by Rep. Clare Hoffman of Michigan, who will take the floor of the House of Representatives early this month and demand the power "to launch investigation wherever union racketeering sticks up its ugly head."

Hoffman already is responsible for the indictment of 17 union chiefs for racketeering and dipping into hundred-million-dollar labor welfare funds. For weeks now, Hoffman has had two ex-FBI agents and other probes in New York, Indianapolis, Chicago, Minneapolis and Los Angeles.

IN MANY AREAS, the probe will reveal that politically active local AFL leaders have been mixed up in these rackets. In still other areas, the FBI—especially in New Jersey—has turned up AFL ties with Longie Zwillman, one of the National Crime Syndicate's board of directors.

At the same time, many local prosecutors and police officials, such as Toledo's Safety Director De Angelo, are beginning to crack down on mobsters seeking to exploit unions.

No doubt by the time 1954 runs through its first quarter, there will be a score of labor racketeering probes in the big industrial cities—and the exposures will neutralize considerable AFL political activity despite the battle AFL president George Meany is waging against the toughest of eastern mobs. Remember, the 1954 election is on the congressional, state and local levels.

However, the Democratic party is expecting considerable power drives from Walter Reuther and his CIO colleagues who are planning some very modern electioneering this year.

Most of this strategy will be discussed at a "full dress" CIO Political Action Committee confab in Atlantic City's Hotel Ambassador Wednesday and Thursday. Reuther will be joined by some 25 of the CIO's top officials in these anti-Republican discussions.

A week later, Reuther and PAC director Jack Kroll will go to Washington for a unique political party—all women. The PAC's national women's organizer, Esther Murray, a pretty, blonde dynamo, has called in several hundred housewives from around the country for a strategy discussion in Washington's Hotel Statler on Jan. 14 and 15. For two days they will devise plans which they hope will take from the Eisenhower camp the millions of women who voted Republican in '52.

THIS STORY has not yet been told about the recent newspaper strike in New York. Only the ringing of a bell kept this tale from becoming national news that week wherever papers were being printed. That bell rang just five minutes before the new American Newspaper Guild President, Joe Collis, and Arthur Rosenstock, president of the New York Guild local, were to enter John Lewis' private office, where they had a 4 o'clock appointment with the United Mine Workers chief.

'54 FORD the "worth more" car declares a dividend

3 distinctive lines — 14 brilliant body styles

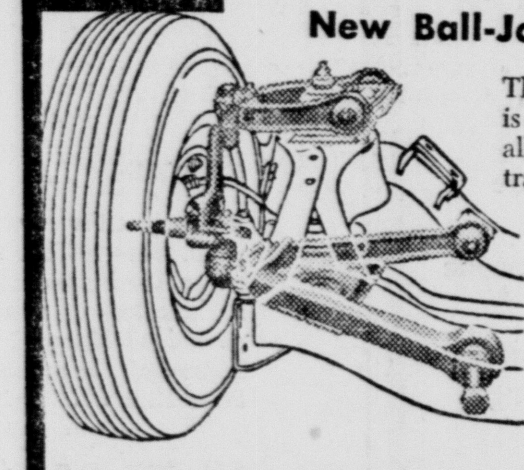

You just ought to try the '54 Ford... the car that brings a whole new set of value features to the low-price field. You'll find that each new feature is an extra dividend in driving enjoyment. And each new dividend establishes Ford, even more in '54, as the "Worth More" car.

You get a special dividend in styling, for example, with Ford's distinctive new appearance... smooth, clean lines. You get sparkling new interiors, too, that are a dividend in themselves. New custom-selected upholstery and trim are color-harmonized with your choice of glamorous new body colors. And Ford's new Astra-Dial Control Panel is not only the most beautiful you've ever seen... it's designed for safety, too, with the speedometer located high on the control panel, where it's more nearly in your line of sight.

And each of the new Fords gives you special dividends in ride and performance... with new Ball-Joint Front Suspension, the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years... with your choice of Ford's new low-friction Y-block V-8 or I-block Six, the most modern engines in any car today! And, as an additional dividend, Ford makes available all the power assists you might expect to find only in the costliest cars.

With 28 brilliant new models to choose from, you'll find the exact car to suit your tastes and requirements. Come in and see the '54 Ford. Test Drive it. Once you try it, you'll want to drive it home.

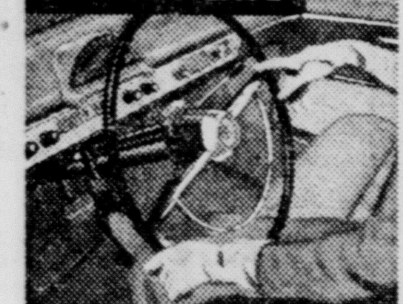

RIDE DIVIDEND

New Ball-Joint Front Suspension

This revolutionary new suspension is exclusive to Ford in its field. It allows greater up and down wheel travel for a smoother ride. And it helps keep wheels in true alignment for consistently easy handling. Movement of the wheels is on ball joints, whether in up and down motion as wheels travel over rough spots, or in steering motion as wheels turn right or left. Lubrication points are cut from sixteen to four.

DIVIDEND IN DRIVING EASE

Master-Guide Power Steering

It does up to 75% of your steering work for you, when you need it... makes "tight spots" parking a pleasure. Yet it leaves you with the normal feel of steering on the straightaway.

Swift Sure Power Brakes

Power does up to one-third of the work of stopping your car for you! You are far less fatigued... much more relaxed in the stop and go driving of today's congested traffic.

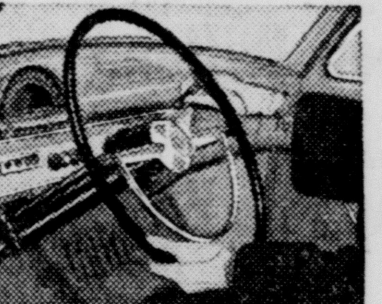

Power-Lift Windows

Smooth, silent electric power opens or closes windows at the touch of a button. There's a master control on left front door beside driver plus an individual control under each power window.

4-Way Power Seat

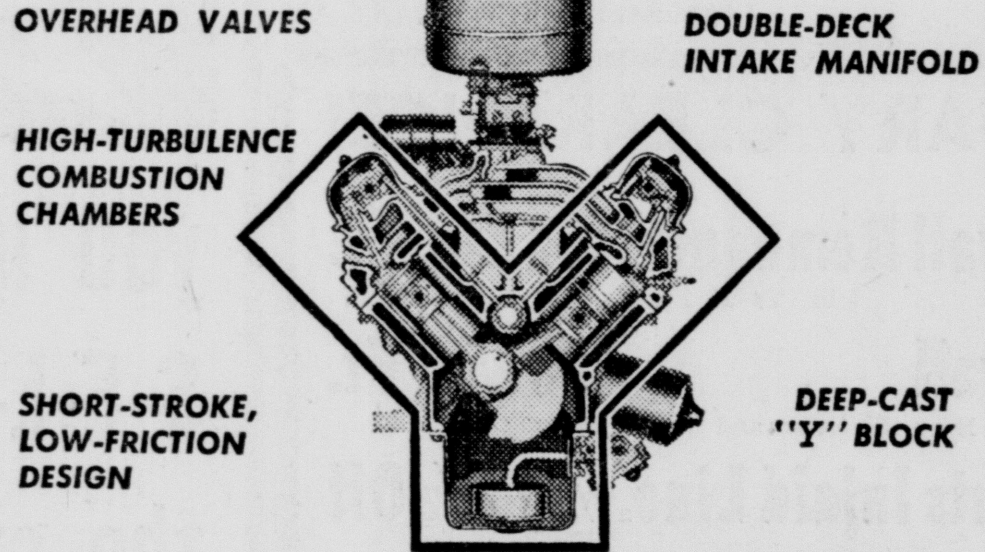

You push one of two controls and the front seat goes up or down... push the other and it goes front or back. It's a real convenience when different-sized people have to drive the same car frequently.

Fordomatic Drive

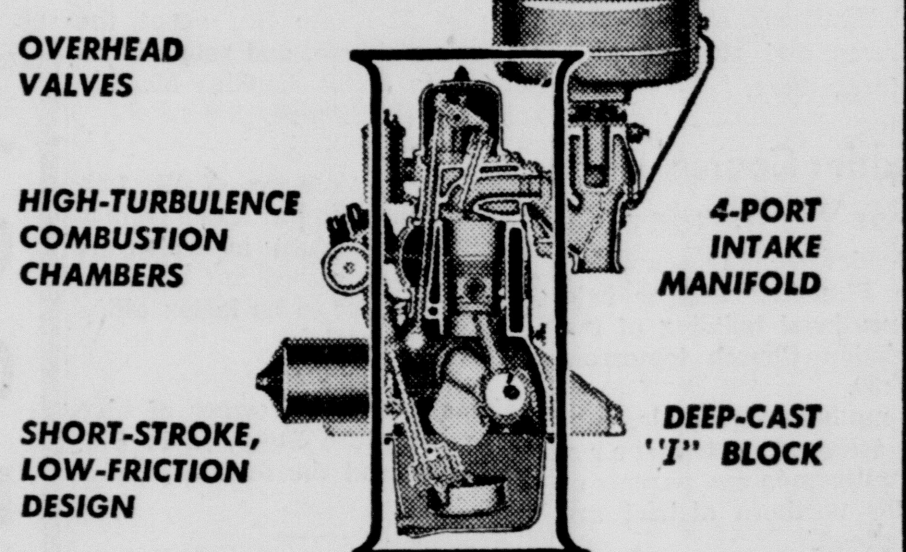

Gives you the most versatile automatic shifting ever. You get the smoothness of a fluid torque converter, the "go" of an automatic intermediate gear. Ford also offers gas-saving Overdrive.

The greatest engine advances since the original FORD V-8

TWENTY-TWO YEARS ago Ford introduced to the low-price field a fine-quality precision-engineered V-8 engine. This basic design—soon to become famous throughout the world—quickly established a new standard of performance for low-priced cars. And now, with its 22 years' experience in building over 13,000,000 V-8's, it is only logical that Ford is first in its field to introduce a brand new type of V-8—the Y-block V-8... together with the most modern Six in the industry—the new and advanced I-block Six.

Both new 1954 Ford engines have overhead valves for most efficient high-compression operation on today's fuels. Valves are free-breathing to give you the most GO... free-turning to seat tightly and maintain high compression. Both engines have a deep-cast block with skirt that extends well below the crankshaft for greater strength and rigidity... smoother, quieter performance and extra-long engine life. Their modern short-stroke, low-friction design cuts friction losses... gives you more usable horsepower, more miles per gallon of gasoline. And new high-turbulence combustion chambers assure a more thorough mixing of fuel and air for faster, more efficient firing of fuel.

Plan to Test Drive a '54 Ford. You'll find these new Ford power plants stand out as the greatest engine advances since the original Ford V-8.

Type Of Rural Health Service To Be Discussed At Meeting

LISBON — "What Type of Rural Health Program Do Country People Want?", a panel discussion topic, was selected by ten members of the executives committee of the Rural Health and Safety Council Monday afternoon for airing at the quarterly meeting of the council Jan. 27.

Mrs. Curney Converse, chairman, presided at the meeting at the Lepper Library here.

Attorney Donald Elliott of Rogers was chosen to moderate the panel for which members will be chosen this week, Mrs. Converse said.

The quarterly meeting dates for 1954 was changed from the last Tuesday to the last Wednesday of January, April, July and October, due to conflicts with other rural meetings.

The meeting was attended by Miss Jean Stille of Salem RD, senior at Ohio State University, who began her duties Monday as temporary home demonstration agent, replacing Mrs. Ruth Pendry who retired due to illness.

MARION, Ohio (AP) — A Marion County Common Pleas judge today nullified the work of a grand jury which last month returned 12 indictments, including one for murder.

Judge Paul D. Smith said the grand jury actions were nullified because one of the jurors had served on a jury the previous year.

A new grand jury is scheduled to convene Jan. 13 to reconsider the 12 cases.

But No Bird-Watching

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—How would you like to start the new year off with a free million-dollar idea?

Well, a fellow gave me one the other day, and after examining it from all angles, I am now passing it on to you—and you are welcome to it.

"Why doesn't somebody invent a new middle-aged pleasure?" this man demanded. "It would be worth a million dollars to him."

When I asked him what he meant, he continued:

"A great amount of effort and energy is spent thinking up gadgets to keep the young happy or soften the woes of the elderly. But nobody pays any attention to the middle-aged."

"Yet there are more middle-aged people than any other kind. Why should we have to shift for ourselves so much? Why doesn't somebody exert a little brainpower to provide us with some new form of pleasure?"

"Take me, for example. I'll admit, I'm middle-aged, and I am bored. I am in that critical period when a man is too old to enjoy playing postoffice and too young to enjoy rheumatism. Why doesn't somebody dream up a new kind of pleasure that will enable us middle-aged people to forget ourselves and our problems?"

"Have you never tried bird watching?" I inquired. "The sight of our little feathered friends at work and play is often soothing to the spirit."

"Look," he said, "let's be practical. When you've seen one English sparrow, you've seen 'em all. Let the birds watch each other."

He made the same complaint about baseball, television viewing, canasta, and stamp collecting. He was weary of sports and jobs.

"No," he said, "what I want is an absolutely new pleasure for a middle-aged guy like myself—something that doesn't come in a bottle or wrapped in cellophane, something that doesn't come with a guarantee to help me or hurt me, but something I can get some real fun out of."

"Any other qualifications?" I asked.

"Well, yes," he said. "A new pleasure for a middle-aged man ought to be simple to inexpensive. It ought to be something the children can't steal from you as they reach their teens. It ought to be something a man can enjoy without having to share it with a woman. Naturally, also it ought to be respectable, so that it won't be denounced by the clergy or make a man subject to arrest and imprisonment."

"That all?" I inquired.

"Yes, that's all," he said. "But is that too much to ask?"

Frankly, it didn't seem too much to me. After all, why shouldn't a middle-aged man be allowed a new pleasure that wouldn't bankrupt him, bring down the law on his head, or that he would have to divide with his wife and kids?

"Don't you have any suggestions?" my friend asked hopefully.

I thought and I thought. But it isn't easy to think up a fresh middle-aged pleasure that meets these restrictions. Finally I told him lamely:

"Have you thought of taking up the study of ventriloquism? That would fit the rules you laid down."

"If I do," he bristled, "I'll know where to find my first dummy."

As I say, it's a million-dollar idea. They're two bits a dozen unless you know what to do with them.

Even if I could discover a new middle-aged pleasure I doubt if I'd tell anybody. It might be better just to enjoy it in silence.

Gov. Lausche Names Newsman As Secretary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today appointed Ray M. White of Millersburg secretary to succeed Ralph Locher, who resigned to become Cleveland law director.

White, former publisher of the Farmer-Hub and general manager of the Holmes Publishing Co., is chief of the information and education section of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

Lausche said White will take over as his secretary upon completing his duties with the department.

White, who spent 26 years in the newspaper work, served seven consecutive years as a state representative, resigning in 1951 to join the natural resources department. He also was chairman of the governor's tree planting committee last year.

498 Dead Gls To Be Identified

Korean Casualties To Be Made Public

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department today will identify 498 of 3,856 American soldiers and airmen who were officially declared dead at the end of 1953 after they had been listed as missing in Korea for at least one year.

The Army and Air Force started notifying next of kin last week and by Saturday all of the presumed dead will be identified publicly.

The first list of 10 Army officers and 398 enlisted men has been distributed for publication today at 6 p.m., EST.

The Army has prepared five more lists. The Air Force and the Marine Corps have one each. The last of these will be made public Friday.

The Navy has changed the official status of 3,372 missing men, the Air Force of 256 and the Marine Corps of 228.

The Navy plans no such mass action, but has been acting in individual cases after the lapse of a year without information that the servicemen might still be alive.

Since the fighting ended last summer the Navy has listed as dead 34 of the 103 men who had been reported missing.

The Army and Air Force action at year's end resulted in at least 30,350 the battle death toll in Korea.

At the same time, the roster of missing has been reduced to 3,856. Eventually these, too, will be declared legally dead unless information turns up to indicate otherwise.

Pay and allowances of missing servicemen end as soon as they are listed as dead, but their beneficiaries are entitled to any pay that has accumulated.

Beneficiaries also will receive lump-sum payments equivalent to six months base pay.

Families of men now declared dead will receive from the appropriate service a booklet setting forth their rights and benefits. The largest of these could be a $10,000 government life insurance policy.

The Veterans Administration yesterday began sending out notices telling relatives of the 3,856 men of benefits that may be awaiting them.

VA said all forms needed to apply for death compensation, serv-

Worker To Ride 1,000 Miles On Horseback

DENVER (AP)—Ralph Hume, a 34-year-old steelworker, will start a "St. Louis or bust" journey by horseback Jan. 12 to rejoin his wife and son.

"I've been waiting since I was in the Navy during World War II to do something like this," he said.

Hume plans to make the 1,000-mile ride in less than a month, riding a frisky 7-year-old Arabian mare.

The rugged steelworker came to Denver two years ago with his wife and son, now 12. A few months ago he decided to return to St. Louis. His family drove back in the family auto.

Man Dies After Getting 125 Gallons Of Blood

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—A man who received more than 125 gallons of blood transfusions over a 30-year period fighting a rare disease has died in the veterans hospital here.

Funeral services were to be held today at Inez, Ky., where the 63-year-old victim, Medley F. Crum, was born.

A spokesman at the hospital described the ailment as Osler's disease. It caused his blood vessels to become enlarged and made him bleed profusely.

Kentucky, Duquesne Remain Top College Basketball Teams

Salem To Face East Palestine, Ravenna Friday And Saturday

Quaker Coach John Cabas is continuing to drill his squad on fundamentals this week during practice in preparation for the double-header weekend Friday and Saturday.

The local mentor is working his cagers on ball-handling, defensive work and basic offensive plays. He said he will make no lineup switch this week.

"You don't change when you're winning," he declared.

Looking ahead to Friday's game with East Palestine, Cabas warned the team not to take the Bulldogs too lightly. Both Sebring and Woodrow Wilson barely edged East Palestine, while the Quakers handily walloped both schools, indicating a big edge for the locals this Friday.

But Cabas pointed out that the visitors lost only two starters from last year. Big 6-5 John Herbert, Dave DeRhodes, and Bob Knight, who scored 14 points last year against Salem, too the returns.

Last year Coach Jack Swinderman's crew was leading by only one point at both the half and the third period. The Quakers forged to a 49-47 lead with three-and-a-half minutes remaining, but East Palestine hit a scoring streak to win easily 56-50.

Jack Gottschling tallied 28 points in the losing cause.

Not much is known about Ravenna, the Red and Black's foe Saturday evening in the first away game. However, Cabas says that the Ravens have only a few lettermen returning.

Coach Don Vance's crew tripped the locals 60-48 last season for their ninth victory in 10 outings at that point of the campaign.

The Bulldog contest will conclude Salem's seven game home stand which opened the season. Salem took full advantage of the schedule break, winning five of six so far with the last four in a row.

The Quakers now have only 11 games left, six on the road and five at home.

The highlights of the remaining home card include the games with East Liverpool and Canton South. The latter, although rated as only the third best team in Canton, promises to be one of the toughest squads the locals will face all season long. Another powerhouse to be feared is the Sharpsville, Pa. team which has most of its potent squad returning from last year.

That game will be played at Sharpsville.

Numbered among the squads which may be on the easier side are East Palestine, a few of the Youngstown schools, Niles, and possibly, East Liverpool.

The tournament, for which Cabas has drawn a first-round bye every year since he took over at Salem, will begin the latter part of February.

NEW YORK (AP) — Duquesne's towering Dukes crept up on Kentucky in this week's Associated Press basketball poll but the all-winning Wildcats held on to first place by a narrow margin of 81 points.

They led by 150 points a week ago but Duquesne's sweep through 11 straight games and the Garden Holiday Festival in New York sent the Dukes' stock soaring. Duquesne and Kentucky both won again last night after the polls closed. The Wildcats have won 8, Duquesne 12.

Indiana stayed in third place and Minnesota in sixth but the rest of the positions underwent a thorough shakeup, mainly as a result of holiday tournaments.

Oklahoma A&M, winner of the All-College Tourney at Oklahoma City, moved up from fifth to fourth, and Western Kentucky, seventh a week ago, jumped to fifth after winning the Louisville Invitational. Western has taken 12 straight this season.

Holy Cross broke into the top 10 in seventh place as it ran its record to 8-0 in winning the Sugar Bowl Tournament at New Orleans.

The biggest advance, however, was by Duke, winner of Raleigh's Dixie Classic. The Blue Devils were unranked a week ago. This week they finished eighth in the voting by 99 sports writers and broadcasters. Ten points were awarded for a first-place vote, nine for second, etc.

Oklahoma City moved up from 11th to ninth and Oregon State, beaten twice in three games in the Dixie Classic, dropped from fourth to 10th.

Illinois, North Carolina State and Fordham, 8, 9 and 10 a week ago, dropped out of the top 10.

ILLINI MAY HAVE 8-FOOT HIGH-JUMPER

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Illinois may produce the track sensation of the century—a high jumper who can clear eight feet and goes over the bar backwards.

He's Dickie Browning, Illini junior from Dallas, Tex., for two years the national AAU tumbling champion.

Browning's gymnastic specialty is a running forward hand spring, a roundoff, a flip-flop and, finally, with terrific momentum built up, a backward double somersault.

Charley Pond, Illini gymnastic coach, says:

"Dickie has reached eight feet a number of times at the top of his double backward somersault. He could go over the high jump bar while doing it."

The world's high jump record is 6-11½, set last June by Walt Davis, 6-8 Texas A&M basketball star, in the national AAU meet.

FARM SYSTEM NEEDED

CLEVELAND (AP)—General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians says "I'm more convinced than ever that you need a good farm system to win pennants. Maybe we're on the right track. Six of our farm clubs won 1953 pennants."

HARTWIG SCORES UPSET OVER VIC SEIXAS

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Australia's unpredictable Rex Hartwig scored a smashing upset over veteran Vic Seixas of Philadelphia today in the quarterfinals of the South Australian Tennis Championships.

Hartwig won the match, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2.

Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, probable opponent of Australia's 19-year-old wonder Lewis Hoad in the finals, entered the semifinals with a 6-3, 6-3, 6-3 straight set conquest of Aussie lefthander Merwyn Rose.

HAD KICK COMING

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP) — Jack Stone, halfback on the West Virginia football team, never had attempted a field goal until kicking one that beat Pittsburgh in 1952. He repeated the feat against the same team in 1953 to sew up another victory.

During their recent good will tour of the Orient, the New York baseball Giants traveled 25,000 miles by air.

Kentucky Trims Xavier, 77-71

Duquesne Defeats Dayton, 70-52

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP)—It looks like pretty clear sailing now for Kentucky and Duquesne, two members of the basketball big three, but Indiana, third member of the trio, has a rough road to travel.

Kentucky's Wildcats, rolling along at the head of the Associated Press poll, defeated a stubborn Xavier of Ohio team 77-71 last night while Duquesne was beating Dayton 70-52. Indiana, meanwhile, had its second successive close shave in Big Ten competition before downing Wisconsin 70-67.

Kentucky, with eight straight victories in a triumphal return to the college cage scene after an enforced year's absence, now has only De Paul and Vanderbilt to worry about. De Paul is always tough in the Chicago Stadium and Vandy upset Kentucky three years ago in the Southeastern Conference tournament. But they shouldn't prove any more troublesome than Xavier, which outscored Kentucky in the second half but couldn't catch up from an early 22-point deficit.

Duquesne, ranked just behind Kentucky, is threatened by a return game with Dayton and another match with Niagara, a five-point victim of the Dukes in the Madison Square Garden Festival Tournament. Lanky Dick Ricketts showed Dayton the same brilliant shooting he flashed against Niagara as he popped in 24 points last night. The victory was No. 12 for the unbeaten Dukes.

Indiana, which went down to the final seconds against Michigan Saturday night, ran up a 15-point lead against Wisconsin, then had to play strict possession ball to stop a Badger rally. Big Don Schlundt, playing in the corners instead of his accustomed pivot spot, dunked in 29 points for the Hoosiers.

Indiana has two games against sixth-ranked Minnesota and also has home and home dates with Illinois, a 66-65 winner over Northwestern last night. The Hoosiers' Saturday night date in Minneapolis should tell the story.

Conference competition got going with a bang last night. Kansas, which bowed to Indiana in the NCAA final last year, began defense of the Big Seven title by squeezing past Oklahoma 76-72; Duke, No. 8 team in the country, rolled along in the Atlantic Coast Conference by flattening South Carolina 89-69; and Wichita won its Missouri Valley opener with a 77-75 overtime victory over Detroit.

In other Big Seven openers last night, Nebraska turned back Iowa State 74-60 by sinking 11 of 13 field goal attempts in the fourth quarter and Colorado downed Missouri 66-62 after nearly blowing a 13-point halftime lead.

In other Big Ten games, Iowa opened with a 73-63 victory over Michigan State, and Michigan downed Ohio State 85-76 despite 35 points by the Buckeyes' Paul Ebert.

Bill Slattery of Navy stole the ball and fired in a basket to give Navy a 67-66 edge over Princeton.

Fordham poured in 33 points in the final period to overwhelm New York University 87-60. Maryland beat Richmond 72-64, Utah edged Utah State 71-58 and Wyoming belted New Mexico 81-61 in other leading games.

Bucceroni To Fight Ten Hoff Tonight

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Philadelphia's Dan Bucceroni, a 2-1 favorite, and Germany's Hein Ten Hoff tonight box a 10-rounder which could increase the crowd hunting a try at Rocky Marciano's heavyweight title.

The bout, which will jam an expected capacity 7,156 into the Milwaukee Auditorium, will not be televised or broadcast.

If the rangy, 215-pound Ten Hoff, former European heavyweight champ, should upset Bucceroni, an offer stands ready to take Marciano to Berlin for a summer title defense against the 32-year-old Hamburg veteran.

Indiana, Illinois Barely Miss Defeat

CHICAGO (AP)—Indiana and Illinois, two of the Big Ten's top rated basketball clubs, narrowly escaped defeat last night as underdogs Wisconsin and Northwestern bid strongly for upsets.

Indiana's Hoosiers had a 15-point lead over Wisconsin on their home court at one point but in the game's closing minutes had to resort to stalling tactics to stave off a belated Badger bid and win, 70-67.

Dependable Don Schlundt, who scored 30 points in Indiana's 62-60 victory opening the Big Ten campaign Saturday, hit for 29 against the Badgers, who were topped by Tony Stracka's 18.

Sophomore guard Bill Ridley, a substitute, scored a field goal and free throw in the waning seconds to give Illinois the points it needed for a 66-65 victory over Northwestern. Hal Grant of Northwestern missed a vital free throw as the game ended.

The Illini were paced by John Kerr, who scored 27 points.

In other games, Iowa won its Big Ten opener, beating Michigan State, also in its debut, 73-63, and Michigan surprised Ohio State, another first-time-out team, 85-76.

Ray George Resigns As Aggie's Coach

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—The resignation of Ray George as head football coach at Texas A&M, following closely the departure of two assistants, means an almost entirely new gridiron regime for the Aggie school.

George, whose team lost its last five Southwest Conference games, quit yesterday with the announced intention of entering private business. He told reporters he is out of the coaching business.

Speculation today on his successor turned on these names:

Mike Michalske, A&M line coach. J. V. Sikes, former Texas A&M football star who resigned as coach at Kansas last November after a bad season. Sikes reportedly has visited the A&M campus recently.

Dick Todd, former Aggie and professional football player now an assistant on the Southern Methodist staff.

Maryland Coach Jim Tatum. Army Coach Red Blaik.

Sikes said at Lawrence, Kan., he hadn't been approached but "It would be nice to go back to A&M if they want me." Sikes was A&M freshman coach in 1935 and 1936 and assistant coach in 1937.

George's resignation is effective Aug. 31.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Irv (Huck) Holdash, recently released from the Army after three years service, has been signed by the Cleveland Browns. The 23-year-old Youngstown resident was a star center at the University of North Carolina and played for the College All-Stars against the Browns in 1951.

Ebert Scores 35, But OSU Falls 85-76

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Ohio State's 26-point final period wasn't enough to catch a revved-up Michigan team which sped to an early lead and hung on for an 85-76 Big Ten basketball victory last night.

But Paul Ebert, the Buckeyes' sharpshooting senior from Columbus, stayed in the midst of the competition for top Western Conference scoring honors.

The 6-foot, 4-inch center scored 35 points and kept his mates in contention until a speedy 20-year-old Chicago youngster took over to wrap up the game for Michigan in the closing minutes.

Jim Barron, a sophomore, kept the Wolverine attack going just when it appeared ready to fizzle. The Bucks had crept to within 1 point, 68-67 after trailing most of the way.

Then Barron dropped in a field goal and 6 fouls and set up 2 other baskets. He ended the game with 20 points.

At 1:30 p.m. the department responded to a call extending east from N. Main St. to low-lying land between County Line Rd., Route 14 by-pass, and Seventh St.

Keeping the fire under control, the firemen let it burn over about 20 acres of a dense growth of dead grass and weeds to end the hazard. Again at 3:20 an alarm called the department to E. Duquesne St., where a fire had started in the rear of the residence of Dr. J. R. Moorehead.

Ladies' night will be observed at 7:30 today in connection with the third of the series of five evening services sponsored by the Columbiana Ministerial association in observance of the week of prayer. Services are being held in Grace Evangelical and Reformed church.

Firm Plans To Sell
Autos At Discount

CHICAGO (AP) — The president of a Chicago mail order house said today his plan to sell 10,000 1954 Fords to military personnel at a 17 per cent discount is part of a sales program going back to 1949.

Charles Leggett, head of the National Procurement and Distributing Corp., said he also plans to offer similar discounts on Chevrolet, Mercury, television sets and other items.

A Ford Motor Co. spokesman said in Detroit yesterday the company does not "condone any arrangement" to sell the Fords at a discount.

Since 1949 the Chicago firm has sent out mimeographed bulletins to National Guardsmen, members of the armed forces and active reservists offering bargain prices on "everything except food and clothing."

Leggett said he has purchased Fords in prior years in lots of 200 and offered them under a similar sales program.

Union Dispute Cuts Out
Music For Chorus Girls

BOSTON (AP) — The pretty chorus line swung onto the night club floor last night and the band stopped playing abruptly.

Who stopped the music? President James C. Petrillo of the AFL American Federation of Musicians.

Why? Because the girls in the line belong to the American Guild of Vaudeville Artists, also AFL. Petrillo was quoted as saying AGVA broke a union agreement by working with nonunion members. He ordered his members not to play for AGVA acts.

Union spokesmen said the hassle may spread from Boston's night clubs throughout the country.

Dairymen To Convene Here Next Tuesday

New styles in dairy cattle feeding and milk marketing will be featured topics at the sixth annual Columbiana-Mahoning Dairy Institute set for Tuesday, Jan. 12, at Salem's Masonic Temple.

The program, which includes prominent Ohio milk producers and research scientists in the field of dairy husbandry, opens at 10 a.m. Floyd Lower, county agricultural agent, reports.

George Jackson, a Mt. Gilead dairyman, will speak on "Our Dairy Farm Pasture and Roughage Program"; at 1 p.m. Everett C. Hale, a dairy farmer from Burton, will explain "Trends and Problems in Milk Marketing"; at 2 p.m.; Dr. Orrville Bentley of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station will discuss the "Nutrition of the Dairy Cow" at 10:30 a.m. and will speak on "Nutrition and Reproduction" at 2:45 p.m.; and C. D. McGrew, animal husbandman at Ohio State University, will address the group on "Trends in Dairy Cattle Feeding" at 11:15 a.m.

Lower said lunch will be served at the Temple at noon. Over 200 dairymen, 125 from Columbiana County attended the training day last year.

Ohio Bell Works On Direct Dialing For Area

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said today it would spend 15 million dollars this year in the Greater Cleveland area for expansion and improvement.

Faster handling of long distance calls, explained a company spokesman, will include direct dialing to other Ohio cities in the spring of 1955. Direct dialing to distant cities on a national basis is scheduled in 1958.

The northeast Ohio area, including Cleveland, Akron, Canton, Youngstown, Salem and Massillon, will be in a single dialing area. This means a caller in any of those cities may dial two letters and five digits for a direct call to a party in the area. For calls outside the area, it will be necessary to dial three digits, and then the local number of two letters and five digits.

Late Pope Pius To Be Elevated To Sainthood

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican announced today the late Pope Pius X will be elevated to sainthood, the Roman Catholic Church's highest honor, at a great outdoor ceremony May 29, in St. Peter's square.

He will be the first pope canonized in 241 years. The honor will come to him less than 40 years after his death on Aug. 20, 1914.

The ceremony will be the second outdoor canonization in the long history of the church. The first, a highlight of the 1950 Holy Year, elevated 13-year-old Maria Goretti, an Italian girl who died defending her honor.

Hundreds of thousands are expected to throng St. Peter's giant square for the May rites at which Pope Pius XII will officiate.

William Ashton Named Lisbon Board President

LISBON — William Ashton was re-elected president of the Lisbon Board of Education at its reorganization meeting Monday night following a dinner at Hotel Wick.

Robert Williams was re-elected vice president and Mrs. Irene Wojtecki was reappointed clerk.

Mrs. Mabel Pike of Hanoverton, a Kent State University graduate, was hired as substitute principal of Lincoln School to replace Mrs. Victoria Hum who resigned.

Mrs. Kathleen Thyng, English teacher at Lincoln School, was granted an 18-month leave of absence. Mrs. Alice Yoos of Lisbon was hired in her place.

City Trucks To Pick Up Old Christmas Trees

A city-wide collection of discarded Christmas trees is planned for Thursday and Friday, Mayor Dean B. Cranmer said today.

The mayor said he had instructed Service Director Arch Harwood to have city trucks cover the north side of town on Thursday and the south side on Friday for a roundup of all old trees.

People are asked to put the trees in front of their homes so that service department workers can pick them up. The trees will be hauled to the city dump where they will be burned.

lude to stabilizing farm prices. The government now has on hand about five billion dollars worth of farm products acquired in its price support program.

In a bid for bipartisan support, the President invited Democratic as well as Republican leaders to a White House briefing today on the foreign relations and national defense aspects of his message.

Similar moves were under way in Congress, almost evenly divided among the two parties.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis.) announced that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will sit down Thursday afternoon for a secret review of the world situation.

Chairman Saltonstall (R-Mass.) announced Defense Department officials will brief the Senate Armed Services Committee "just as soon as possible" on details of the administration's new defense program.

In one late change in his speech last night, Eisenhower apparently sought to lay stress on actions already taken to ward off an economic decline, including a program to funnel some defense work into areas where there is large unemployment.

As distributed by the White House, the President's text had him giving assurance that "every legitimate means available to the federal government that can be used to sustain . . . prosperity for this purpose—will be used—if necessary."

Text Revised

Later, the text was revised and the President changed the wording slightly again in delivering it to say that every such means "is being used and will continue to be used as necessary."

The President expressed confidence that the program he will request of the session of Congress which opens tomorrow will meet with the approval of the people. He said he hoped it would enlist support in both parties because of "its purpose of promoting the welfare of the people."

Observing that no group of Americans can prosper unless all Americans prosper, he cautioned against division into factions and hostile groups.

"We believe that the slum, the out-dated highway, the poor school system—the deficiencies in health protection, the loss of a job and the fear of poverty in old age—in fact any real injustice in the business of living—penalizes all of us," he declared.

"And this administration is committed to help you prevent them." Reaction in Congress to his speech was generally favorable, but Sen. Holland (D-Fla.) commented that Eisenhower "sounds like he is committing himself to the welfare state."

"I hope his specific messages to Congress prove that is not true," Holland added.

Vandals Break Into West Local School

LISBON — Vandals broke into West Local School at East Rochester Monday night about 10:30, the sheriff's office reported.

The intruders entered through a broken window but stole nothing, deputies said.

McCarthy

he will ask the Senate to increase, by an unspecified amount, his committee's $200,000 budget for 1953. He said he wanted to expand the investigative staff. Recently he announced he was broadening his activities to take up the handling of some federal tax cases.

"As far as I'm concerned," Ellender said in an interview, "he should not even get anything like last year's spending authorization. I'm going to make another effort to have it cut down to size."

Ellender for years has contended that most congressional committees spend too much money. But he has had little success in cutting their budgets. He said he will have a lot to say "about this shameful waste of tax money, spending unnecessary sums for unconscionably large staffs."

"The committee McCarthy heads is only one of them," he said. "There is too much duplication by all of them, but that is particularly true with the McCarthy committee and the Jenner committee."

That was a reference to the Senate internal security subcommittee headed by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), set up specifically to search for subversion. McCarthy's group, a Government Operations subcommittee, has blanket authority to examine the spending of any federal money.

Ellender said he will tell the Senate the McCarthy group "has encroached on other committees" by running inquiries he believes should have been handled by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee or by Jenner's subcommittee.

County Bar Association Members Hold Meeting

LISBON—Thirty members of the Columbiana County Bar Association attended the January meeting Monday afternoon at the courthouse following a dinner at the Presbyterian Church here.

Attorney Devere F. Grappy of Leetonia presided in the absence of Attorney Carroll Lynch of East Liverpool.

A five-man delegation met with the county commissioners to discuss the handling of support payments in alimony cases. No definite action was taken.

Dickson Is President Of Goshen School Board

Robert Dickson of RD. Beloit was elected president of the Goshen Union Board of Education at the reorganization meeting held Monday night in Goshen Union School.

Mrs. Frances Sangree of RD. Salem was elected vice president and Thomas Somerville of Damascus was named clerk of the board at a salary of $125 per month. Other members of the board are Jay Bricker and Glenn Shreve.

School Board

have discussed the possible need for a full-time clerk or secretary to supply the board estimates and figures it needs on many projects as well as relieve the superintendent's office of much bill-paying that now takes up considerable time.

Fitch said the board should have the chance to re-consider at the end of this year whether it wants the full-time clerk.

Heddlston moved that re-election be for two years, however, and the vote was 4-1, with Fitch opposing.

Supt. Kerr reported there are 3,016 pupils in Salem public schools, an increase of 90 over last year.

Miss Dorothy Alek, a high school senior, was appointed as part-time secretary at the high school.

Typewriters Denied

The board refused Supt. Kerr's request to purchase two electric typewriters for the high school.

Mr. Kerr told the board that the instructors in the typing classes have asked for an IBM electric typewriter on which students may get some practice before entering industrial offices next year, most of which use electric machines.

The secretaries in the board of office requested a Royal electric typewriter to replace a worn machine in that office.

The typewriters would have cost $275 and $295 respectively.

Fitch opposed the purchase and the board took no action on it. Fitch said he felt the machines would be put to good use, but that he hoped the board would cut out all expenditures that could be eliminated so that the school indebtedness could be wiped out.

After further board discussion, Supt. Kerr asked that the matter be dropped.

The board approved a $300 service fund for traveling expenses for school officials and board members to educators' meetings and school events.
